

Serve My Thirst

Infected Mushroom

I am fading away from here
I am fading away from here
I am fading away from here
I am fading away from here

I am fading away from here
Can't see nothing clear
And even thou I'm awake
My body slowly breaks
Feel so cold and I shake
Every time I reflect
A story is ready to burst
I shout to serve my thirst
It seems to clear my head
When I'm awake at night
I pull myself so tight
When lying in the dark
Feeling rich with words
About to draw my sword
Regretting half my chords
I started all from scratch

Take me away
Shattered my hopes today
Nothing can be done, I see
All will end so tragically for me
