

I never ask for help
I will take care of myself
I will live
I will breathe
There is nothing you can give

The wind blows us to the future
I still write about the past
My heart still beats but I feel putrid
I never find the things I've lost
I know it's done! Now it's over
That little girl is just a past
I was a bird, I was a soldier
Never found the things to trust.

Here I am begging you
Daddy, please, just let me go
Let me fly, let me escape
I have no more things to take
Daddy, please, let me breathe
Don't punish me for the things you did
Let me go, let me die
I have no more tears to cry

Can you hear the message I'm bringing
Can you take me to the past I'm singing

I will scream and you'll get deaf
I will fight and you'll get mad
'Coz I hear the voices callin'
Feathers from my wings are fallin'

I will scream and you'll get mad
I will fight and you'll get sad
'Coz I hear the voices callin'
Feathers from my wings are fallin'

Can you hear the message I'm bringing
Can you take me to the past I'm singing

I never ask for help
I will take care of myself
I will breathe
I will live
There is nothing you can give
