

You say people talk about me,
N you've heard rumours, you don't know what to Believe
Will you throw away tomorrow,
Oh just why can't you see that its not up to me,
If I'm somebody's fantasy

I know sometimes I'm just out there,
And I know sometimes I can flirt a bit too much
But I also know I love you,
So just why can't you see that its not up to me,
If I'm somebody's fantasy Oh-no

I took a ride on a fairytale just for you,
So why can't you just try,
To believe that there telling lies about me,
Baby don't you cry
I took a ride on a fairytale just for you,
So why can't you just try,
To believe that there telling lies about me,
Baby don't you cry, don't cry, don't cry

I don't know what else to say now,
I've been faithful but I know how it could seem,
And I know that this is painful,
Oh but you've gotta learn,
That it doesn't concern our love
When others fancy me no-no

Took a ride on a fairytale just for you,
So why can't you just try,
To believe that there telling lies about me,
Baby don't you cry,
I took a ride on a fairytale just for you,
So why can't you just try,
To believe that there telling lies about me,
Baby don't you cry, don't cry, don't cry

I took a ride on a fairytale just for you,
So why can't you just try,
To believe that there telling lies about me,
Baby don't you cry
I took a ride on a fairytale just for you,
So why can't you just try,
To believe that there telling lies about me,
Baby don't you cry
