

sure you can lie, except to yourself make others think you're someone else pretend you're someone by faking your feelings to get accepted and have some meaning friends swallow your bullshit like it's food opening themselves to who they think is you what's the reason for using a sheild not letting out how you feel afraid to let out what's inside rather be someone who isn't alive is ther eal reason why you fake because yourself is your biggest hate? just be yourself
not someone plastic before it's too late things get too drastic...
