

Life is hard, then you die plus mass questions, asking why but saying this and wishing that wasting time, never coming back got to be tough and watch out for pitfalls not paying attention, costing it all temptation along side, twisting the mind finding a weakness, to bait his line then there's friends, so you thought seems he lied, so you got ripped off next it's her, she's so sweet always feeling good, ain't love neat quickly see beauty turn into beast catching your neighbor 10 inches deep all that's left in your head interested to see what tortures ahead screwed...
