

Sick And Tired

Infest

every show the same ol' thing do you pay attention to what we sing? brother against brother, such a shame brainless gangs, it's getting lame! bashing some heads
your way of fun but when it's one on one that's when the fun is done all the slogans of unity that's something I don't see a scene that's something plagued with groups of hate let's just coexist and try to relate proving themselves men bunch of fucken shit
i'm getting tired
i'm getting sick of it!
