

nobody speaks for you without knowing your thoughts no matter what they say be your own boss along with everyone else you have a mouth too speak when you should others will hear you why be someone's follower leading is where it's at if others relate to your views you'll be who they'll back always speak your mind others may feel as you do don't worry what others say speak to what applies to you voice your opinion
your voice must be heard
voice your opinion
your voices must be heard
