Cold In California

Didn't anybody know Didn't tell anybody else that I was gonna go Didn't anybody see Didn't tell anybody else that I was leaving Didn't anybody stay Didn't tell anybody else what I was gonna say Didn't anybody cry Didn't tell anybody else that I was gonna die

Do you know that it gets cold in California Well I guess I'll miss my home in Tennessee Be sure to bring your coat to California When you come find me
