

She'll Be The One

Ingram Hill

So now you show your face in this home of mine
You left no space for me
Your wish I granted, it's not enough
Stuck with I can't believe

How can you want it more?
You really call this love?
Now who's the better man?
She'll be the one to know

I let you go about your way
With no interruption
How you chose to pay me back
Left me as one
My fingers twitch, my heart beats loud
All I see is red
Your bitter mind justifies your loss
All else is dead

How can you want it more?
You really call this love?
Now who's the better man?
She'll be the one to know

Time away is all you needed
And now you stand and watch me bleed

How can you want it more?
You really call this love?
Now who's the better man?
She'll be the one to know
