

She Wants To Be Alone

Ingram Hill

She don't believe in anything
Never in love with those who love her
Ticking time bomb inside
She carries a weight of broken dreams
Carefully hiding everything from her heart
Doesn't know what she's missing

She wants to be alone
She wants to change her whole way of life
She wants to be alone and there's no way around
She said she doesn't need me, she doesn't need anyone

Selling the girl you never see
Falling apart to the sound of nothing
She likes it that way
I've waited around patiently
Hoping to be the one she needs
But she's running away, turning away
She won't stay

She wants to be alone
She wants to change her whole way of life
She wants to be alone and there's no way around
She said she doesn't need me, she doesn't need anyone

Keep me in mind, I will be on call all the time
'Cause I want you more than anyone

She wants to be alone
She wants to change her whole way of life
She wants to be alone and there's no way around
She said that she doesn't need me

She wants to be alone
She wants to change her whole way of life
She wants to be alone and there's no way around
She said she doesn't need me, she doesn't need anyone
She doesn't need anyone
