

To Your Grave

Ingram Hill

Minutes 'till dawn, I'ma wake
Stare at the phone, and I wait
Daylight creeps in, through the blinds
Strong as I've been, well I was lyin'

But now I've lost control
It's hard but I've found my soul

Minutes 'till dawn, by myself
Stare at the phone, short of breath
Search for your face, through the blinds
Said I'm ok, well I was lyin'

But now I've lost control
It's hard but I've found my soul
Don't need you anymore
Much better on my own

Because I've tried
To stay alive
Let me lie
This is the last I'll say goodbye

Same as before, I'm to blame
Forever yours, I'll remain
You'll feel my love and my embrace
Take it along to your grave

Well hey, my love, you'll know the shape I made when you
Feel my love and my pain, 'cause I'll be there

When you try
To stay alive
Well don't you cry
But this is the last we'll say Goodbye
Goodbye
