Why Don't You

You could fall apart It wouldn't take a lot So fragile Your porcelain heart You don't wanna be Another casualty of love's war So you won't even start I won't hurt you I won't Why don't you let me be the one to love you Why don't you help me find a way to Why don't you let me be the one to love you You don't have to be afraid when it's right Why don't you You've heard I've been around But I'm so different now Believe me Let me show you how Cause I won't lead you on You'll be the only one It's alright That man is gone Cause I won't hurt you No I won't Why don't you let me be the one to love you Why don't you help me find a way to Why don't you let me be the one to love you You don't have to be afraid when it's right Why don't you Let me have the chance to make it alright Follow what you're feeling It will be fine Baby you should be mine Why don't you let me be the one to love you Why don't you help me find a way to Why don't you let me be the one to love you Why don't you help me find a way to Why don't you let me be the one to love you You don't have to be afraid when it's right Why don't you let me be the one to love you Why don't you help me find a way to Why don't you let me be the one to love you You don't have to be afraid when it's right Why don't you

Let me be the one
