

Everybody Listen

Inhabited

Ok, you tell me this and
Alright you tell me that and
You say I've bumped my head again
But it's a mistake
I wanna think something by myself
Wanna be, wanna be somebody else
And your shoe, it doesn't fit
And life's too short to wear it yeah
I'm not gonna be what you want me to be
Not gonna wear what you tell us to wear
Call me crazy, I don't mind
Have it your own way

Evrybody listen
Can't you see the fiction
When it's right in front of you
Evrybody stand up now
We're not giving up
Not backing down

Hey, you, time is tickin'
You're scared they will listen
