Inhabited

Memories

Its cold outside
The wind is blowing on my face again
Stumbling through the shadow
Over and over and over again
Its not supposed to be this way

Running from your memory
With the wind beneath my feet I'll be okay
As long as I am running away
I'll be I'll be okay

Two worlds collide
And something is always left behind
I sleep to wake you found me
Closer and closer and closer the end
Its not supposed to be this way

CHORUS

If I could turn back time
I'd erase all the pain
Heal we say hello goodbye
The clouds are breaking
Its okay, let go

I'll be okay
It'll be okay
We'll be okay
I'll be okay
We'll be okay
