

Thin Black Lines

Inhale Exhale

Step it up, be bold in who you are.
Don't back down and take this fight to the streets.
Is there something that you would like to say?
Choose your words man oh so carefully.
Hold on.
Find the words, you'd better find them fast.
Does this allow you to spread your filth by word of mouth?
Is there something that you would like to say?
Choose your words man oh so carefully...
Say the words you mean to say.
Spread your thoughts and make them pay.
Say the words...
