

Faithless

Injected

Could you be lost
Are you so free, do you long to be
When the sun goes down, do you feel the feeling there's no-one near
You know it's such a mystery how you washed up over me
And I couldn't breathe, I couldn't speak, lest I drown

But it's my kind
I'll never be cruel and I'll always play the fool
To be as loveless, as shameless as you.
But I'm so blind
I'll do it again I feel your eyes sink in So faithless as you've been.

Yes I'm so lost
I am not free but I long to be
When life goes down, do you feel as though you're gonna drown
You're going down
