

talk, wait,
engage your heart at its nadir.
your methods coming clear.
we speak, we taste
we roll a night that lingers wrapped in silence
please don't pierce it.

kiss away dependency show me what it means to be clean and full of dirty bliss 15 minutes more of this.

what's your favorite color dreaming in no other
what to do? what to say?
so my 15 won't fade away

don't wait too late
i never know, you come and go your weakness starts to show we fall, we fly
we'll sleep in this forever wrapped inside us.
please don't lose it.

i kissed away your dependency when you found out what you meant to me your brown eyed frown i'm gonna miss, you get 15 minutes more of this
