

Forever

Inkubus Sukkubus

A voice on the wind
A face in the flames
She is but a ghost
She is but a dream
And she will stay forever young
Forever young, forever young
Her last verse is never sung
For she will be forever young

And she is an angel, so beautiful
And she will always be so perfect
Like an angel

Dragged away by the fey
Dragged away to yesterday
Far away, far away
Dragged away by the fey

And she is like an angel, so beautiful
And she will stay like a memory
So perfect

And she will be forever young, forever young
