The Dark Prince

Inkubus Sukkubus

Once again, back from the dead The dark prince Once more, the monster's kiss The virgin in white, shall be defiled Throughout the night And she will be reborn in death

Swept away in the madness of desire Lost again in the romance of the night

Once more the beast will take her On the silken sheets Once more the fangs and heaving breasts The angel of love is now stained with her blood And the young men cut him down

Dragged away with the erotic and the dead Throughout the storm, the thunder and the pain
