

The End

InMe

Spit in my face again, you lie and cheat,
Shoulder to shoulder and brother to brother,
Moments later you've changed your tune to fit the scene,
I can't seem to fight it and i want to be something more,
I like it yes i tried it and i went and changed all my ways,
Sickened is refreshing, i listen out for your scrutiny to fade,
Is this the end? I'll save your skin,
Can't fake pretend, please let me in,
I want you near, these people care,
&lsque; cause i'll get back to you,
I stop it and i start it and everyone looks at me,
Im giving and im taking, i wanna turn around and leave you,
Chasing and replacing someone with someone better,
Happy to the sad.
