White dress princess
On friday night
It's a shame if you go home alone
Thank god I'm not the jealous type uh huh
Dressed up
Fresh with a fashion sense
Approach you
And spit clever pick up lines
My name is whatever you prefer
You said my friends call me insecure
What do they call you at home?
White dress princess
On friday night
It's a shame if you go home alone tonight
Thank god I'm not the jealous type uh huh
The boys all wanna dance with you
Perfection's rare around these parts
Tell them I have nothing to prove uh huh
You smile
I'm charming you with these looks
We converse about school friends and latest trends
Lipstick smeared on red plastic cups
You're wishing right now we just fall in love
Come here girl
White dress princess
On friday night
It's a shame if you go home alone
Thank god I'm not the jealous type uh huh
The boys all wanna dance with you
Perfection's rare around these parts
Tell them I have nothing to prove uh huh
You said...You said
Beware we're breakin my heart
I only want you, cause you want me
Right now
We'll dance with the rhythm of my hand
White dress princess
On friday night
It's a shame if you go home alone
Thank god I'm not the jealous type uh huh
