

Drinking And Dialing

InMemory

I dare he who takes my place
To kill you with compliments
You can spend hours on the phone
Our high school replay
You'll cry and aspire words
Well I've been there once before
But your lips are best left untouched
Ask anybody (anybody)

Oh I've been dying just to tell you something
I've been waiting oh for so long
You like to tell me that you're fine without me
You'll regret it when I'm gone

I pray to god you cannot breathe
Or go a single day without the thought of me
When you decide to go
Just know, you can go free

You'll ask him to burn inside
While you beg me for one more time
And I'll clean up the mess we made
With our tongues bleeding when our mouths met
We'll kiss to exchange the blame
As we ignore consequence
But your lips are best left untouched
Ask anybody (anybody)

Oh I've been dying just to tell you something
I've been waiting oh for so long
You like to tell me that you're fine without me
You'll regret it when I'm gone

I pray to god you cannot breathe
Or go a single day without the thought of me
When you decide to go
Just know, you can go free
I pray to god you cannot breathe
Or go a single day without the thought of me
When you decide to go
Just know, you can go free

Oh I've been dying just to tell you something
Oh I've been waiting oh for so long
But you'll regret it when I'm gone

I pray to god you cannot breathe
Or go a single day without the thought of me
When you decide to go
Just know, you can go free
I pray to god you cannot breathe
I pray to god you cannot breathe

I pray to god you cannot breathe
Or go a single day without the thought of me
When you decide to go
Just know, you can go free