'Cause I'm a dread from around the world
One world that's my aim Bad boys and we don't play games

Howdy Partner, ha ha, ting ting What more appropriate true for Speech to release to and sing
A tune about da language that's distinguishable to some
At the first lick to the low bass line heavy island drums Pentacostel Tongues, language indescribable unpleasant to the ears
That is unless you're inheritably tribal Survival is the key to this here dialect family
It's the language that I speak word out to peeps

From the land of Jah I come to you Look in my eyes can't you see life
In my world all things are real

So jack it up, bring it back, start it again
Let's get together can't we be just friends
