

Love Is A Poisonous Cunt

Inner Fear

They say it's just a rapid strike
Like the pain of burning
Its venomous affection kills with the tongues of loving

The pulse of your heart's just a waste of time
Eternity was supposed to be mine
Adorable creature that never exists
Blind fold of devotion erases its sins

My venom like heaven covers you
So deep, beneath my flesh

It's joining the feast; it's so starving to death
Incredible lies cuts your very last breath
It's like autumn that slightly absorbing your colors of dreams

You can't just imagine its pretty disguise
It sees and it listens to the pain in your eyes
And there's nothing that could violate the obsession to stop

They say it's just a moment of joy
When the time stops running
Its merciless destruction crawls by the pawns of loving

And never gonna give you a chance

For your soul's your burden
Irony evolution falls recreating nothing

You can't just imagine its pretty disguise
It sees and it listens to the pain in your eyes
And there's nothing that could violate the obsession to stop

It's joining the feast, it's starving to death
Incredible lies cuts your very last breath
It's like autumn that slightly absorbing your colors of dreams

Adorable creature that never existed
Blindfold of devotion erases its sins

They say it's just an innocent flight
But your wings are burning
Addiction to the savior-light still exists in mourning

And never gonna let you arise
Upon your meaningless glory
Love is a poisonous cunt
The end of story
