Dreamer Of The Night

InnerWish

All my life I was trying to be myself Holding on to the dreams that we've both shared Always believe, never repent

And day by day, I'm working hard hanging on a hope Holding on, feeling anxious to go on Into this world that sunk beyond

But every night I ease my mind Where silence rules desires and dreams are know alive

Dreamer of the night Gazing at the burning sky Dreamer of the night Setting free my desperate mind

All these fears all these nightmares haunt my way Solitude is a price I have to pay I'm standing so week in front of my fate

Now I know that my heart can't stand for long I'm burning on and my mouth can't speak a word Break into tears and sing alone
