

I don't look for your comfort babe
Gotten enough from you
I was caught in the middle of deceiving
Cast a role of fool
Gimme more, gimme all to abhore
I reveal or will owe you again
May one day may no more may I say
Forget it all and brace my reins

Better travel fast
Underneath her mind
Straight into her veins

I don't need your rules to obey like a piece of idiot
Catch me, sear me, kill if you can
But you're always late
Gonna see, gonna be just for fee and grow
As your silly idols
Finally directly just for me and both
Your identity

I hope that you believe
In this never ending path
That leads us through the night
To the reigns of fallen pride

I don't look for your comfort babe
Gotten enough from you
I was caught in the middle of deceiving
Cast a role of fool
Gimme more, gimme all to abhore
I reveal or will owe you again
Finally directly just for me and both
Your identity
