

Rather Be Alone

INOJ

Thought I was the only one, guess I was mistaken
You treated me like a queen I never ever felt that you'd betray
Me

She is your girl (she is your girl) and I am your girl (and I am
Your girl)

How could this be you were using me to cheat on her

I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you
I'd sleep out in the cold, before lying in bed with you
I'd take the lonely road, before taking any rides with you
I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you

All the times you spent the night with your head laying beside
Me

And just when I was waking to the morning light the note instead

Surprised me

She is your fool (she is your fool), but I am no fool (but I am
No fool)

Our love was a lie and all the the things you said they weren't
True

I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you
I'd sleep out in the cold, before lying in bed with you
I'd take the lonely road, before taking any rides with you
I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you

Oh yes

Oh all the things they weren't true

I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you
I'd sleep out in the cold, before lying in bed with you
I'd take the lonely road, before taking any rides with you
I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you

I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you
I'd sleep out in the cold, before lying in bed with you
I'd take the lonely road, before taking any rides with you
I'd rather be alone, than being in love with you

Rather be alone, than being with you
Sleep out in the cold than lie with you
Take the lonely road before riding with you
Rather be alone, than being with you
