Inversion of Ethereal White Stars

Inquisition

Rise above the mystical ones
Shining throne that ignites the skies
From its life shall come its death
I invoke the inversion of stars

Astral songs are the hymns of war Mass of black energy reigns Through the holes of cosmic worms Like a god in the valley of moons

Black sun rays of the throne - lord of the eternal fire Black shadow of the skies - king of the ancient star

As I chant to the primal night Wizards mourn to the ending of times White stars fall through the cosmic eye Golden horns now bray up high

Black sun rays of the throne - lord of the eternal fire Black shadow of the skies - king of the ancient star
