Magnificent Glorification Of Lucifer

Inquisition

Wisdom of darkness lies in the shadows Mystical fire burns on your black torch Star in the night sky, brightest of all stars Son of the morning shining unholy

Fallen from heaven rebel of angels You are my ruler, lead me to your throne Speak to me master, teach me your secrets Follow the left hand path into Hell's fire

Chanting to my lord as he looks at me I obey his words in return for strength To Him I remain loyal to the cult Hail Lucifer... Hail Lucifer
