

Immortal Beloved

Inspection 12

In a room filled with darkness
It's another sunny day.
I lose my faith and all without you and feel the pain
Of lost love some never gain.
I never said that I would leave you
And I only want to stay

'Cause at the times that I'm feeling down
And left out in the rain
My heart is filled with you.
And I don't care- and I'm not scared
If I'm lost in time- I'm by your side
No longer wandering- I've found my home forever.
