

These days every-ones confessing
And I find it
Quite depressing
I wont bother
With indignance
I can't find a girl with whom to fall in love with
My friends tell me
It's a hassle
She'll leave you cause
"Your an asshole!"
Then they'll call you
Say, "I'm sorry"
And then ask you what you think you'll do tomorrow.
Well, I have never been in love
I guess I'm not lucky enough
I have never been in love before
Well, perhaps I've
Almost been there
Once this girl came out of thin air
I liked her lots
But it stopped there
Cause if loves a one way street its goin no where
