

And confusion running wild
I hold treasures for you to find
Release of tension unknown
Mind works the fingers to the bone

Bitches brew
How'd you know I won't pray for you?
Bitches brew
How'd you know I won't pray for you?

It seems you lost your hard fought creed
Pray for time to set you free
What chance for children against such tides?
Your mother did warn you from inside

Now you're back on dry land
Curse the place where I stand

Bitches brew
How'd you know I won't pray for you?
Bitches brew
How'd you know I won't pray for you?
