

Here Comes The Flood

Inspirational Carpets

The sky is red, and the sea is blue
God made the distance between me and you
Always walking the tightrope, always walking the line
Placing your head in the lion's jaws

Here comes the flood, it's just washing you down
Here comes the flood, it's just washing you down
Flood, flood, here comes the flood

Watching your river turn into an ocean
Sailing your ship off the edge of the world
Watching the sail as it carries you on
The wind twists like lovers in each other's arms
Here comes the flood, it's just washing you down
Here comes the flood, it's just washing you down

Flood (it's just washing you down)
Flood (it's just washing you down)
Flood, here comes the flood

This is my future and this is my past
And they meet in the middle of nowhere
Won't you lend me a hand, stuck out in nowhereland
Waiting for someone to hear me
Here comes the flood, it's just washing you down
Here comes the flood, it's just washing you down

Flood (it's just washing you down)
Flood (it's just washing you down)
Flood, here comes the flood

Oh, here comes the flood, here comes the flood
Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood

Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood
Here comes the flood
