

Hated Of The World

Integrity

everything went away
even i turned my back!
back to the glory
the way it was
the way it should be
feel it coming to its end those days of parasites
days of loss
time to begin again
those days of fear
those days of hate
when the world
turned against us (for the music that we made)
for the things that we said we were hated
of the world
i see through smiles of my enemies and i wait and watch their weakness shine through nothing will ever relieve the hate you instilled in me you'll never learn
let me burn
