

Jagged Visions Of My True Destiny

Integrity

Each doorway exists opening new worlds one is born to obey another to destroy everyone is turning
everything is circling Lost on so many levels carving out my way inhaled so much freedom forgotten I'd escaped.
Everyone is turning
everything is circling
There is no reality
this is a mere dream
I can hear their footsteps coming closer.
Forgotten so many moments Forgotten so many.
Time is my only cost time is my only loss
