

Nothing Left

Integrity

beaten down and battered thought you'd count me out weight of the world holding me back this is the time we attack when you least expect it that's when we go
for the throat
can't kill us - dead inside heard all your lies
times run out
nowhere to go
nowhere to hide
now we know
there's nothing left
beat us down
we get back up
we're just too stupid
we won't give up
all our lives
we've been trained to believe there's something better than this out there just a bunch of fucking lies
