You can't sit up You fell too fast You come at the right time Yeah, you come too fast

You bloom in spring Yeah, you move the sky You've come in singing Yeah, you call me a liar

You were like a cloud Yes, you are a flower Then you were a lime Now our love is sour

You were like a flower You were just like a flower Then you were a lime Now our love is sour

Don't give up
(I owe you)
No don't give up
Oh don't give up
Don't give up
(I owe you)
You were like a cloud

Yes, you were a flower Then you were a lime Now our love is sour

You were like a cloud You were just like a flower Then you were a lime Now our love is sour

Here I feel I wish
I could just see it
The love the hate
The things that separate

Forcing conscious
To conscious every small attack
It takes a small man
To notice but not to act up

Confrontation, complication Needs a foundation I'm calm baby, I'm calm

You were like a cloud Yes, you are a flower You move I love life Is all we need

Then you were a lime

Now our love is so sour You move I love life Is all we need So sour, so sour

Don't give up No don't give up Oh don't give up No don't give up

Start again buttercup (I owe you) Start again buttercup (I owe you)

Start again buttercup
(I owe you)
Start again, start again dear
(I owe you)
