

Any Port

Intronaut

we stand at its feet
and stare it straight in the eyes and strap up
and set out
to be unchained
from the chains
halfway up we'll pause
and gag at the stench
and think
at least it's something and feel the sting
swimming in dead skin
theres no coming up for air
