

For Goodness Sake

Intwine

You know you're welcome to stay my friend
Didn't you know it was all so much pretending to like it
Like a smile so fake
So I don't know this for long
For goodness sake
For goodness sake

You were so troubled you had enough
Looking for something to hold on to instead your cup was empty and you filled it up you drowned your sorrow so long
For goodness sake
For goodness sake
You have no face
For goodness sake

And change is the only way to pretend
This race is so cold, you have no faith
This place is so lonely
The face is the only
Put your (...) with a smile
'Cause God's a fake
For Goodness Sake
For Goodness Sake
For Goodness Sake

For Goodness Sake
For Goodness Sake
For Goodness Sake
For Goodness...!!!!!!!
