

Slow Down

Intwine

Leave it, you're better of alone now
Dream it you don't need to slow down

Run they make an edge
Jump over instead
Into the wonderful unknown
Of the darkness below
Beware the fall, it aint that long before you know you'll hit the ground

Like a story you will be
All their dreams will make you free
Until those bubbles they collide
And keep you there inside
While all the needles that you've had
Have helped but now gave up as well
