Melting In The Sun

I'm melting in the sun And this is what they call the life I suppose to much sun Makes a desert Arab say

And I really love this country There's a lot I wanna see

Great expectations Of all we seem to be

And the winner, the winner

Do you wanna make a story up There's enough it always seems If it happened in this morning Tonight we'll see it on T.V

Great expectations Of all we seem to be

Great expectations (take a look around you) Of all we seem to be

And the winner And the winner, the winner

She was twelve and knew the world Her boyfriend knew a dance to this Everybody's got advice Take a snake, take a ladder

And this is what they call the life I'm melting in the sun

Great expectations Of all we seem to be

Great expectations (take a look around you) Of all we seem to be

And the winner And the winner, the winner
