

Here Today, Gone Tomorrow

Ion Vein

Standing here
Feeling scared and lonely
I cry out your name
But you are not there
All the dreams
We shared together
Now you're gone
I'm left with despair

Time goes on
My heart's feeling empty
Memories of you
Burning deep inside
Close my eyes
You always appear
Just as I'm ready
To slip away

Here today, gone tomorrow
Don't let the past stand in your way
Here today, gone tomorrow
It's so easy to turn away
Here today, gone tomorrow
Don't let the past stand in your way
Here today... gone

Are you happy now?
Is your life complete?
Sometimes I wonder
Is the future bright for me?

Is it just a matter of time?
As reality grows so far away
There's got to be
There's got to be another place for me
A place for me

Here today, gone tomorrow
Don't let the past stand in your way
Here today, gone tomorrow
It's so easy to turn away
Here today, gone tomorrow
Don't let the past stand in your way
Here today... gone

Here today, gone tomorrow
Don't let the past stand in your way
Here today, gone tomorrow
It's so easy to turn away
Here today, gone tomorrow
Don't let the past stand in your way
Here today... gone

Gone tomorrow
Gone
