

The Bridge Of Dawn

Ion Vein

Painted picture
Of a never ending dream
Fallen ashes
Are they blacker than they seem?
Fading memories
Hold on to their silent scream
Faint hearted
Shall be left out of the scheme

Follow the sign deep in your heart
Look beyond the darkness for the answer
Take hold of the fire burning deep inside
Light up the sky and become free

Rise up and face the mirror
Fight on, the future is near
Stand tall one and all
Stay strong, cross the bridge of dawn

From beyond the sun
Seeds of hope shall come
Things will change for some
The test of time will be won

Lonely soldiers
Marching down the empty road
Timeless tale
So the vision has shown
Hidden ties
The answer is now known
Final dawn
The seeds of hope have been sown

Rise up and face the mirror
Fight on, the future is near
Stand tall one and all
Stay strong, cross the bridge of dawn
