Splintered Heart

Light eyes with a splintered heart Contrary and she's whip smart Never know what way to go Never mind that she can't say no Light eyes with a splintered heart Lost love and open ocean swells The stories that the sea tells A weary weathered sailor gone Never mind that it's been too long Light eyes with a splintered heart

I'm tired I don't wanna be alone And I just can't find the words to let you know This time I will lay it on the line I've got a feeling to get you and I'm trying to let you know

Twisted with a jealous mind Not yet but you'll be all mine Never know just what to say Never know the games to play Twisted with a jealous mind She's a ruthless heart breaker A dancehall dream taker She might not know my But she'll be mind just the same Light eyes with a splintered heart

I'm tired I don't wanna be alone And I just can't find the words to let you know This time I will lay it on the line I've got a feeling to get you and I'm trying to let you know
