

Wait Move On

Iris

Here we are
Where are we going to?
Some will stay
Others will find the truth

Tell the world
There is nobody left to betray
All has gone further than I
Am able to spiritually pay

Wait
Move on
Leave it behind
If it takes your soul to chase
Or harm will find you
You know

In the land
There's only one of you
Lost command
It slips right out of you

What has grown
To taste so good you can't leave alone?
Just before it becomes yours
And fate has been written into stone

Wait
Move on
Leave it behind
If it takes your soul to chase
It harms
I know
