

You're The Answer

Iris

If you don't know what you need
And you're searching for a reason
If it's hard for you to be
All they wanted
Turn it away

If you don't know what you've seen
Then you don't now what you wanted
Turn to me

If it's hard for you to breathe
And you have to take a moment
Turn it away

Don't let them take away your dreams
Just when you think there's nothing
There's always more than you can see

You're the answer
Hold on until the daylight
You're the answer

Turn it away
Don't let them take away your dreams
Just when you think there's nothing
There's always more than you can see

You're the answer
Hold on until the daylight
You're the answer

Hold on to something
Hold on to anything
