

Her Favorite Style

Iron Butterfly

Exciting were her eyes
And refreshing was her smile.

So loving was her attitude she maintained all the while.

She reaped in her softness which created a gentle mood.
And if I ever felt hunger, she would hand me a bit of food.

Ah true, she was exciting, refreshing and loving and still found a way in which she maintained all the while;
that was her faith,
that was her favorite style,
that was her favorite style.
