

The Wolf and the Beast

Iron Mask

I now will tell you a story, the tell of a man and his fear
It was in the heart of a forest, in a land ruled by spells and crimes, he said:
Ooh, Lord give me strenght to survive.
Hunters of the night are keeping watch over me
Ooh, Lord, trapped by the kiss of death
I become the Wolf and the Beast

Carpathian wolf, Transylvania's beast
Forgotten by the Lord, hidden in the shadows
and mist

And now my dreams are visions,
(the) hand of evil commands
There's no more light in my life.
The Reign of terror has come Ooh God give me strenght to resist
How can I kill the girl that I truly loved Ooh, God my thirst is burning me
I will take her blood and her soul

Carpathian wolf, Transylvania's beast
Forgotten by the Lord, hidden in the shadows
and mist

In the night, I slay a thousand times
Shadows of my victims will haunt me forever

I feel remorse, I know my time has come
They will take my soul and my blood

Carpathian wolf, Transylvania's beast
Forgotten by the Lord, hidden in the shadows
and mist
