

I Have A Father Who Can

Isaacs

I cannot make a world and hold it in my hands
I cannot make the lightning flash across the land
I cannot take a piece of clay and mold it into man
But I have a father, I have a father who can.

[Chorus]

Now he sits high and looks low and guides my feet where ever I go.
When I don't understand I have a father, I have a father who can

I cannot make a cloud and ascend it in the sky
I cannot love humanity so much that I would die
I cannot even name the stars or count the many grains of sand
Oh, but I have a father, a heavenly father who can

[Chorus]

Now he sits high and looks low and guides my feet where ever I go.
When I don't understand I have a father, I have a father who can

[Chorus]

Now he sits high and looks low and guides my feet where ever I go.
When I don't understand I have a father, I have a father
I have a father, I have a father who can
