

Perish In Flames

Isengard

Trying to live, refusing to die
Must gather your strength, must reach the skies
Your own world is gone, lost in a time
The land that you knew, is left far behind

But a loss of a friend, in this world
For sure will make you cry
Dry your tears and carry on
With powers of the gods

They are near
The dragonships are near
They are near
The dragonships are hear
You can see the glory, you can see the pain
You'll trust in no one, you are the one to remain
You can see the glory, you can hear the waves
You'll trust in no one, you will perish in flames

To tame a land - a mighty mission
Delivering the fear
Free man fighting, locked in prison
The ships are coming near

Say your prayer, prepare to attack
Our dragonships are here
Feel the thunder, the sky's all black
We're delivering the fear
